Consent

Explicit Media Animation

Directions:

One of the messages that is often depicted in sexually explicit media is that consent is not needed before engaging in sexual activity of any kind. Read the scenario and answer the questions below to further explore the concept of consent.

Devan and Lee have been in a relationship for the past year. Lee is interested in moving the relationship further than hand holding, hugging, and kissing, but Lee isn't really sure what the next step should be.

As Lee and Devan are kissing, start making a move to take the relationship further and see if Devan goes along with it.

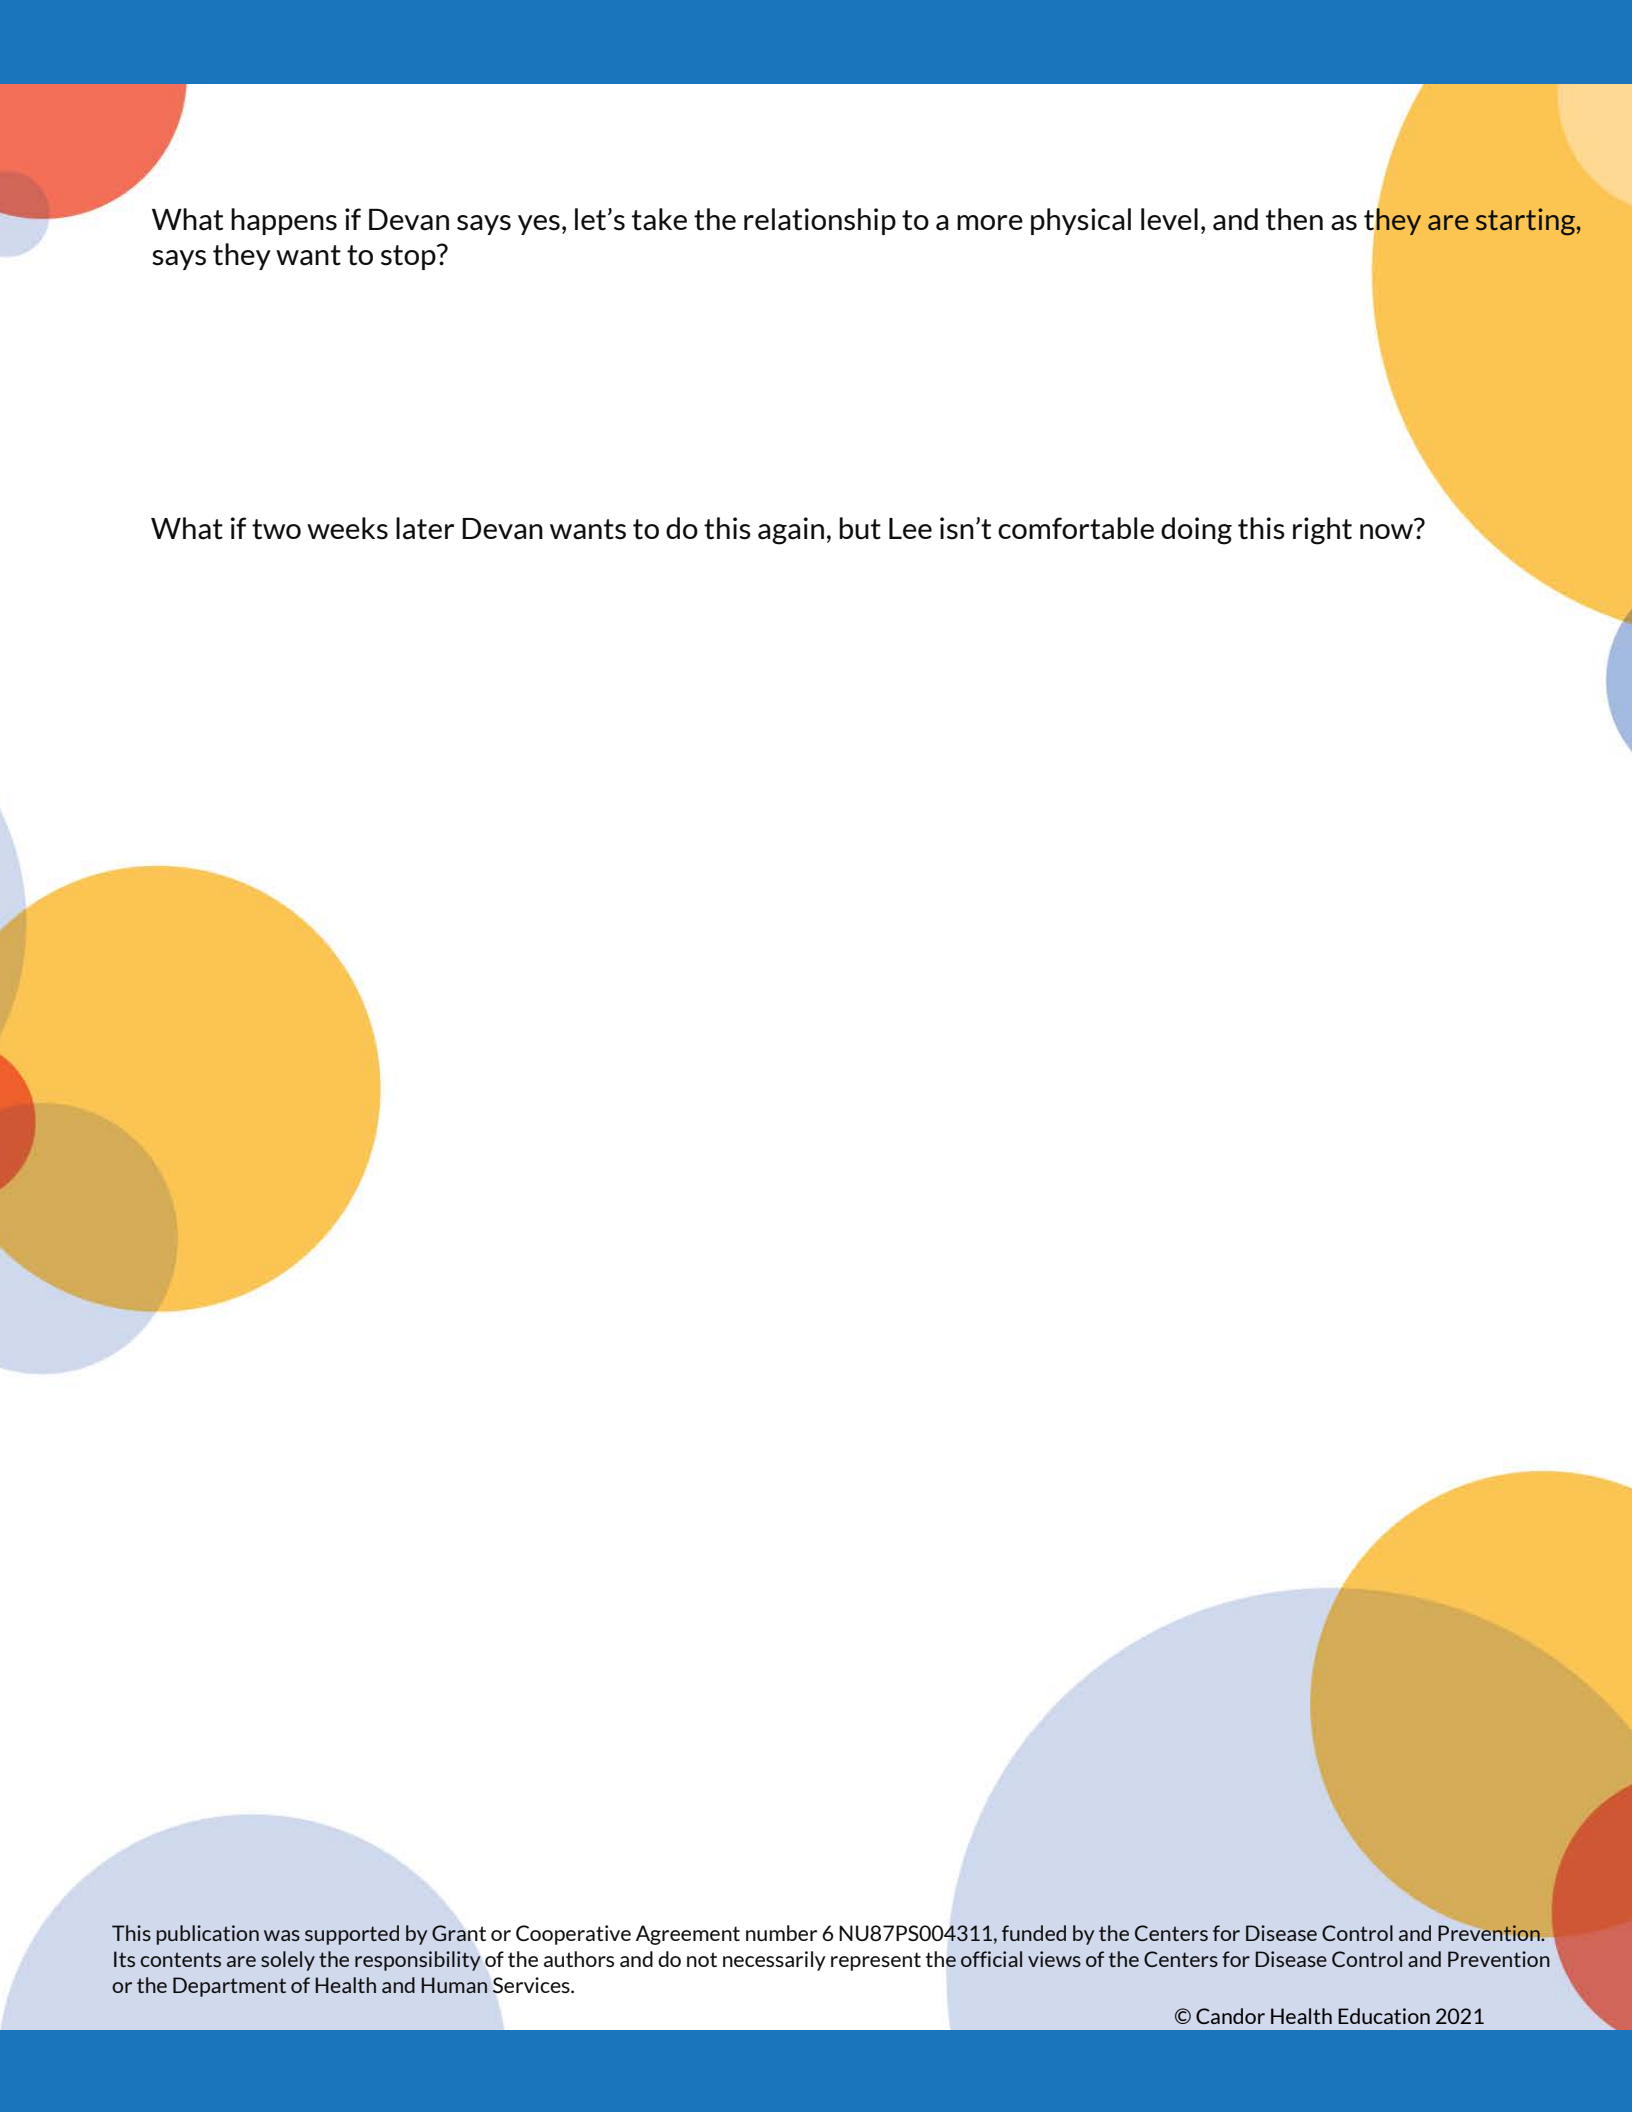

Have a conversation with Devan to see if they are still feeling like they want to try something more

Why did you select your response to number 1?

How might talking about boundaries help Lee and Devan in their relationship?

What might be a way Lee can start the conversation with Devan about their relationship becoming more physical?

What happens if Devan says they want to keep the relationship as it is?

What happens if Devan says yes, let's take the relationship to a more physical level, and then as they are starting, says they want to stop?

What if two weeks later Devan wants to do this again, but Lee isn't comfortable doing this right now?
